This is the way.... Purchase a resort lot when its available, and then build when you are ready. With no requirement to build, and fewer lots available all the time- Lake Newell is the perfect community to consider when looking towards building your dream home near the water. Just steps from the the beach, tennis/pickle ball courts, play ground and the warmest clear lake in southern Alberta. All the amenities you need are close by in the city of Brooks, but the quiet life you crave is nestled on a quiet street right here. With a green space in behind, and a well run condo board in place, you will not regret joining the community of Lake Newell Resort.
